SUMMER STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM

Step through Brandenburg Gate and study psychology in Berlin! From breathtaking views atop the Reichstag building to world-class museums, historic sites, funky neighborhoods, and beautiful parks, students will experience the city's dynamic energy. This program offers the opportunity to explore cognition, relationship development, and abnormal behavior while immersed in a vibrant center for music, progressive art, and architecture. A weekend excursion to the ancient city of Prague will provide a unique cultural contrast to modern Berlin. Field excursions to iconic locales of Berlin and Leipzig will facilitate integration of psychological concepts learned in class with students' experience of German culture and history. Throughout this integrative program, students will be challenged to examine cross-cultural customs and norms from a psychological perspective.
