SUMMER STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM

Core in Florence will unite Art History, English, and Religious Studies in the city heralded as the birthplace of the Renaissance. Most visitors see Florence for a day or two, only briefly experiencing its surface and a selection of its major monuments; Core in Florence will be an extended, month-long residency as faculty and students creatively explore the full depth and range of the city's history and cultural production through art, literature, and religion. With the city as both the classroom and the very subject of the program, Core in Florence and its three integrated courses will embark abroad upon an intensive and expansive learning adventure in the best interdisciplinary tradition of Core.
